DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

Figures 1-6 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

The specification has been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. However, the applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Correction or clarification is required.

In claim 1, it is unclear what the “normally on type FET” and “normally off type FETS” are and how the FET can be “normally” on or off.

In claim 3, it is unclear how the control means turns on/off the off type FETS that can turn on/off the normally on type FET since this FET is on, and how this limitation is disclosed in the preferred embodiment or seen on the drawing.

In claim 7, the recitation “the control means” on line 1 lacks clear antecedent basis. It is unclear where it comes from.

The remaining claims are dependents from the above claims and therefore also considered indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 USC 102 (b) as being anticipated by Hardee (US 6,580,306).

Hardee discloses in Figures 1-3 a switch circuit comprising:

- normally on FETs (34, 36); and
- normally off FETS (32, 38) when no input signals are applied.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2816

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8/1, 9/1 and 10/1-10/3 are rejected under 35 USC 103 (a) as being unpatentable over

Hardee (US 6,580,306).

Hardee discloses in Figures 1-3 a switch circuit with all of the limitations as stated above but does not disclose that normally on type FET include a compound semiconductor or MESFET or high voltage semiconductor FET and the off types include Si-semiconductor or low voltage FET. Although Hardee does not specify the types of the FETS as claimed; however, a skilled artisan realizes the type of these FETs are selectable for accommodating with the requirement system in which the circuit of Hardee is to be used. For example, the high voltage semiconductor FET can handle high supply voltage or a low voltage FET can consume less power. Thus, selecting the type for the FET of Hardee is considered to be a matter of a design expedient for an engineer. Lacking of showing any criticality, it would have been obvious to a person having skill in the art at the time the invention was made to select the type for the FET as claimed for the purpose of accommodating with the requirement or a predetermined system such as handling high power supply voltage or lowering the power consumption.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-7, 8/7, 9/7 and 10/4-10/7 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 2816

These claims are allowed because the prior art fails to suggest the control circuit in combination as claimed.
